Easton Lodge 45, Loyal Order of Moose, is sponsoring the former Brown and Lynch American Legion Band as a civic project, Lodge Secretary Fred W. Zilker, said.

The band, which has won many awards in its more than 40-year history, has been practicing in the Moose Lodge under direction of Easton Area High School Band Director Gerald J. Bender since the Brown and Lynch Post Home, Easton, was destroyed by fire in 1974.

The band plans to continue its tradition of playing free public concerts for nonprofit organizations and marching in summer parades.

Appearances scheduled this weekend are the Pohatcong Township Bicentennial Concert 7 p.m. Friday in Warren Glen, N.J., Slate Belt Bicentennial Parade Saturday in Bangor and Easton Memorial Day Parade 9 a.m. Sunday.

June appearances include the Lafayette Alumni Parade 10:30 a.m. June 5; Phillipsburg Firemen's Parade June 5; Bicentennial Parade in Alpha, N.J., June 12; Northampton Bicentennial Parade June 19, and Portland Centennial Parade at 7 p.m. concert.
